ANTITRUST | COMPLIANCE | M&A |

Dr. Daisy Walzel has more than 10 years of experience in advising on the central issues of German and European antitrust law.

Dr. Walzel has advised on numerous merger control proceedings before the German Federal Cartel Office (Bundeskartellamt) and the EU Commission and has extensive experience in handling parallel filing proceedings before various antitrust authorities in the EU and abroad. She also advises companies on compliance with competition laws in their day-to-day business and on the diverse and novel antitrust issues that may arise in online trading and platform distribution. Finally, her areas of practice include the representation of individuals and companies before the antitrust authorities as well as advice on potentially sensitive cooperations (e.g., in purchasing or R&D) or in abuse cases.

Dr. Walzel has broad industry experience, with a particular focus on the retail and automotive sectors.

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Walzel studied in Düsseldorf and Maastricht and received her doctorate degree in Cologne. After legal clerkships at the Directorate General for Competition of the European Commission and the German Federal Ministry of Economics, she started her legal career as an attorney in 2010 at a major international law firm in Hamburg. After further activities for national and international law firms, Dr. Walzel joined Kümmerlein in January 2021.

Dr. Walzel is business fluent in German and English.
