Jan-Felix advises clients on all aspects of corporate law, M&A as well as commercial and contract law. In particular, he advises on complex corporate transactions in Germany and abroad and on corporate and group law matters, including (cross-border) restructuring and reorganization measures.

Curriculum Vitae

From 2010 to 2015 Jan-Felix studied law at Westfälische Wilhelms Universität Münster. During his studies he already specialized in German and European corporate law.

He completed his legal clerkship at the District Court of Essen, inter alia with stations at the international law firm Hogan Lovells in Düsseldorf. After completing his legal clerkship, he started working as an associate in the Corporate/M&A department of Hogan Lovells in Düsseldorf at the beginning of 2018. In March 2020 he joined Kümmerlein Rechtsanwälte & Notare.

Jan-Felix speaks German and English.
