INHERITANCE LAW | FOUNDATION LAW | REAL ESTATE LAW |

Dr. Markus Schewe's practice focuses on real estate, inheritance and foundations, in particular for the cutting points with other fields of law, primarily corporate law, as an attorney as well as a notary public.

He has broad experience in real estate transactions and M&A, advising clients on real estate issues, especially on formerly industrially used areas (brownfields).

Another focus of his practice is inheritance law: He advises on succession planning and the drafting of wills, as well as on all issues that may arise after an inheritance, and also represents clients in legal disputes.

In the field of foundations, he advises private clients, companies and supervisory authorities on all issues of private and public foundation law, including questions on the charitable status, and also acts as an officially appointed trustee.

Clients of Dr. Markus Schewe are listed and medium-sized companies, the public sector and private clients. As a notary public he is focused on real estate and succession law.

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. Markus Schewe studied with distinction at the Ruhr University of Bochum from 1993 to 1998 and then spent several years as a research assistant to the renowned inheritance and foundation law expert Prof. Dr. Karlheinz Muscheler, with whom he completed his doctorate on a foundation law topic. After his 2nd state examination, he started his legal practice with KÜMMERLEIN Rechtsanwälte & Notare in 2003. He has also been a notary since 2014. He is a board member of Fundare e.V. - Gemeinnütziger Verein zur Förderung des Stiftungswesens, a member of the advisory board of Hereditare - Wissenschaftliche Gesellschaft für Erbrecht e.V., co-editor of the journal "Die Stiftung - Jahreshefte zum Stiftungswesen" and regularly publishes on inheritance and foundation law topics.

Dr. Schewe speaks German and English.
